GOLDEN WEDDING

HAPPY UNION OF MR. AND MRS. A. B. SMART FOR HALF-CENTURY CELEBRATED

The big, substantial cement house at 110 Olive street and the grounds surrounding it provided the setting for a very animated and delightful social affair Saturday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock. It was the celebration of the fiftieth wedding anniversary of the marriage of Rev. Almona B. and Ruby J. Smart and it took place under their own roof in a house planned and built by Mr. Smart.

They were most fortunate in having with them three of their four daughters, viz., Mrs. W. D. Root of Glendale, Mrs. Albert H. Schweizer of Chicago and Mrs. C. S. Walbridge of Los Angeles. Their fourth daughter, Mrs. Iredale, of Chicago, was unable to attend the big family event.

Besides their daughters and sons-in-law and other relatives, about sixty-five friends from Glendale, Los Angeles and other nearby places called to congratulate the happy couple and share the festivities of the afternoon.

That guests might the better visualize the scene fifty years ago when the twain were made one, Miss Frances Gauntlett's clever fingers had made two figures, youthful in features but with an unmistakable likeness to Mr. and Mrs. Smart. These

A CLASS IN CONCRETE

Sounds rather odd, doesn't it? Yet that is just what it is—a class in reinforced concrete construction, which opened Monday night at U. S. C. in the Civil Engineering Department. As so much of the building of immense business houses and bridges is of this nature now it is expected that there will be many pupils in the course.

MISS BALCH A GUEST

Miss Mary Louise Balch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Balch, formerly of Glendale, spent the week-end with her friend, Ruth Whitaker, of 215 East Chestnut. Friday the girls spent at Long Beach.

HOUSE SHORTAGE ACUTE

Ontario, like Glendale, is exceedingly short of houses. Twenty men who recently secured work there had to locate their families in Uplands and Pomona. Every house erected in Ontario during the past three months has been occupied and the Chamber of Commerce is urging the building of many more.

HAPPY GLENDALE

THE FAIREST, LARGEST, FASTEST GROWING CITY IN THE SAN FERNANDO VALLEY

Surely Glendale is an ideal place to live, from every standpoint. We have the finest location imaginable—a fertile valley rimmed all about with hills or lofty mountains, wide paved streets, shaded with beautiful trees, pure mountain water and the most equable climate under the sun. The recent strikes, which brought turmoil and bloodshed to many of our neighboring cities, affected Glendale only in the way of inadequate transportation facilities. It is years since we have had a fire of even moderate proportion until last Friday night and no great conflagration has ever brought loss and sorrow to numbers of homes. We have merchants who work for the upbuilding of the city and who are content with moderate earnings in their lines of business. We have a splendid school system, than which there is no finer in all the world, well attended churches and a happy, busy, contented populace. We are growing rapidly, raise much of our own subsistence and, best of all, retain our own individuality as a commonwealth.

SENATE BILL BY CUMMINS PROVIDES FOR PARTICIPATION BY RAILWAY EMPLOYEES IN MANAGEMENT

Such matters are to be settled by a joint committee on which both sides will be equally represented.

MILAN, September 1.—King Emanuel took a significant step along the path of democracy today when he informed Premier Nitti, according to official announcement, that he intended to relinquish all crown lands throughout Italy for the benefit of the peasantry and "combatants for Italian unity." The announcement states that the king relinquishes the buildings on these lands in favor of charitable institutions. He also announced that in future his private property will be taxed the same as that of commoners.

PRESENT FOOD PRICES ARTIFICIAL

SO SAYS HERBERT HOOVER IN TESTIFYING BEFORE THE CONGRESSIONAL INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
PARIS, September 2.—High food prices in America are due to the failure of the allies to lift the blockade against Central Europe immediately after the armistice, Herbert Hoover declared in testifying before the Congressional committee which is investigating war expenditures. He said that food supplies in the United States are greater than at any time since 1913, and that present prices are artificial.

Probable continuance of the submarine base at San Pedro.
Extensive additions to Pearl Harbor in the Hawaiian Islands.
The establishment of a base navy yard in San Francisco.

FOILS BOYS' PLANS

GLENDALE YOUTHS APPREHENDED WHILE DRIVING AUTOMOBILE OF H. W. WATKINS

Saturday evening at about 9:30 o'clock, after the second show at the Palace Grand was well under headway and perfect quiet reigned on the streets of Glendale, a Buick Six touring car, the property of H. W. Watkins, of 1634 S. San Fernando Road, was taken from Brand boulevard just in front of the Randall residence which is a short distance north of the Palace Grand Theatre by two Glendale boys, Hubert McCann, aged 16, of 317 Myrtle, and Langley Meredith, aged 15, of 224A North Louise.

The front left wheel had been securely locked by means of a chain. Notwithstanding this hindrance the driver, young McCann, according to the report given by Dan A. Maag, succeeded in backing the car from the curbing and turned it around, starting on a diagonal course across Brand toward East Wilson avenue. Maag was seated in his car on the opposite side of the street and being an expert automobile workman became interested in the difficulties of the driver whose engine was choked twice in crossing the boulevard. Maag approached the driver and informed him that the front left wheel of the car was locked and then asked the boy at the wheel whose car he was driving. On receiving the reply that he did not know Maag requested the boys to accompany him to a police officer. The request was complied with and the boys were turned over to Policeman McGuire, who returned with them to the car and remained until Mr. Watkins, the owner, who with his family had been attending the theatre, came upon the scene and identified the car as belonging to him.

Policeman McGuire and the Watkins family accompanied by the boys drove to the police station where particulars were made known.

When Maag approached the boys the car was about 30 feet east of Brand on Wilson avenue and the tire of the locked wheel had made a very clear mark on the street the entire distance which was probably three hundred feet. When the boys were questioned as to why they took the car they explained that a stranger had asked them to drive the car for him. Mr. Maag who resides at 1525 South Glendale avenue has received great praise for his spirit of real true Americanism in turning the boys over to the police officer.

The account as given above is self-explanatory and readers of the Evening News may draw their own conclusions as to the intentions of the boys.

MORE INITIATIONS

SIXTEEN NEW MEMBERS INTRODUCED TO ELKDOM AT LODGE SESSION MONDAY NIGHT

A very satisfactory meeting of the Elks' Lodge was held Monday evening at which sixteen candidates who had been duly elected were initiated, the list comprising: James F. Mullen, Benjamin Farley, Frank L. Burleigh, Emmett Erwin, Ernest K. Arundell, Sol A. Rehart, John C. Klammer, R. E. Downing, John Edward Brown, Wilbur J. McIntyre, Eustace A. Rowley, William J. Berkson, Wayne L. Harmon, Dominic Morro, H. A. Stone and C. E. Neale. There was a good attendance of members from Fillmore and a visiting delegation from Whittier was present, headed by Exalted Ruler H. O. Bailey. Following the initiatory ceremonies luncheon was served and a moving picture enjoyed in the jinks hall. Eight new propositions for membership have been received by the lodge and six duly elected candidates await initiation.

Next Monday night, following a brief lodge session, officials and drill team will go to San Pedro to put on initiatory work there. On the 17th they will go to Whittier for the same purpose.

CHRISTIANITY FRAUD?

CHARGE OF LECTURER CANTRELL TO THIS EFFECT FAR FROM CONVINCING

The lecture of Edward Adams Cantrell in the High School auditorium Monday evening drew a fair-sized crowd. His subject was rather a misleading one—"Christianity Before Christ." Of course there was no such thing as Christianity before the day of Pentecost, A. D. 29, but a little thing like that does not deter a higher critic from stating otherwise (Continued on Page 4)

SCHOOL CHANGES

VACANCIES IN TEACHING FORCE OF CITY SCHOOLS TO BE FILLED BEFORE SEPTEMBER 16

Several important changes to be made in the personnel of the teaching force of Glendale City Schools came before the Board of Trustees for consideration and action at the regular meeting Thursday evening.

Norman Whytock, who had been elected supervisor of physical training, tendered his resignation with the explanation that he is taking up newspaper work. After formally accepting the resignation the Board promoted to the Supervisorship Mr. Blanford, who has been directing physical training at Intermediate, his work having given them reason to believe that he will make good in the more exacting appointment. This leaves vacant the position which Mr. Blanford has been filling at Intermediate where he has taught some classes in geography and other studies.

The Board also received a communication from Miss Helen White, Supervisor of Agriculture and Nature Study, asking for a leave of absence for one year on account of ill health. Her request was granted and this action leaves another vacancy to be filled.

Some time ago the resignation of Miss Elsie Church, who has been second-grade teacher at Columbus Avenue School, was received and accepted and Miss Margaret D. Ball, who has been teaching the fourth grade at Pacific Avenue School, was transferred to take her place. Miss Church will teach in the Bakersfield schools the coming year.

There is also a vacancy in the Colorado Street School which it was expected would be filled by Miss Terry, who served very satisfactorily as a substitute teacher last year, but she has just advised the Board of her acceptance of an appointment in the Pasadena Schools.

An appointment has been given to Miss Muriel Wilson, of 333 Vine street, who has been teaching in Tujunga, but she has not yet been assigned.

The Board is therefore under the necessity of securing a supervisor of agriculture and nature study, a substitute for Mr. Blanford in the Intermediate, and one more grade teacher between now and the 16th of September when the schools will reopen.

Superintendent White says he has been advised that Glendale's school bond issue will be offered for sale September 8th. No school plans can be accepted by the Board until the bonds are sold, but meanwhile members have seen and are still seeing many architects who have outline plans to present for their consideration.

THAT CONGESTED AREA

JITNEY MEN NOT TO PARK MACHINES IN A BUNCH AT BROADWAY AND BRAND

The congestion of autos on East Broadway between Brand and Maryland, had become so great, with all the jitney men's machines included, that access to street cars was entirely cut off at times. So the traffic ordinance was so amended, recently, as to prohibit cars standing along the curb anywhere within 102 feet east from Brand. Some of the jitney men rather took this to heart as a blow at their business, but calm reasoning should certainly convince them that the machines of 20 or more jitney drivers all strung along in this space, together with other cars, constitutes a dangerous congestion. Broadway on the other side of Brand is comparatively free from parking and would make a good stand for some of the number. But any increase in the list will doubtless demand that they club together and have one general office on some lot removed perhaps a block or more from the congested center, Broadway and Brand, where all could be reached by one telephone. As practically all their trips are made in response to telephone calls, a central location like Broadway and Brand is not a necessity.

HOW 'TAS DONE

F. E. GILMAN TELLS OF METHODS USED TO MAKE AN OLD ORCHARD PRODUCTIVE

A few weeks since the Evening News told of F. E. Gilman's magic transformation of a non-productive ill-appearing peach orchard into full-bearing trees of delicious fruit. A friend desired the News to interview him and ascertain his method of work that produced such remarkable results, and publish the same for the benefit of others. Mr. Gilman kindly consented to give this information and it is herewith set down. The trees were first trimmed of all sprouts and dead limbs, no matter how small, and even large branches were cut back so as to make a compact, symmetrical tree. This was done in January. Meantime the ground was prepared for cultivation and was used for vegetables. When the peaches had set they were thinned frequently, probably half the crop being removed to allow large growth of the remainder. When the pits began to harden, the trees were irrigated heavily and this was repeated two and four weeks later. The final watering was given them just as the fruit began to color. The result was as the Evening News staff can testify, very large peaches of most delicious flavor. Rigorous pruning is absolutely necessary for large fruit, and thinning of the crop so that each peach will have ample room to develop to its full capacity. Mr. Gilman has had experience in fruit raising both in the northern and southern parts of the state and results bear out the success of his methods.

FUNERAL OF THOMAS LOWELL FORBES

The body of little Thomas Lowell Forbes, the thirteen-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Forbes, formerly of Burbank but now of Tulare, was laid to rest this morning, September 2, 1919, at Forest Lawn Memorial Park. Funeral services, which were in charge of the Seavern Company, were held at the grave. The infant died August 28th at Tulare, of enteritis. Mrs. Forbes is the sister of Dr. E. H. Thompson, of Burbank.

PICNIC IN GRIFFITH PARK

To properly celebrate Labor Day and as a little farewell for Mrs. C. D. Shattuck, who was leaving for the east the day following, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. M. Burton, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Danford, G. W. Calkins, F. S. Griffith, Miss Coral Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Shattuck and their daughter, Leone Shattuck, chartered a motor bus and enjoyed a picnic dinner and pleasant afternoon in Griffith Park Monday.

GOOD RESULTS

Mrs. L. B. Howe of 727 E. Windsor Road advertised a furnace for sale in the Evening News last week. Before 7 o'clock of the day the ad appeared she had sold the furnace and had so many calls she says she is seriously considering going into the furnace business.

DEATH OF AMOS F. CLENDENIN

He was about 54 years of age and leaves a wife and four children. Funeral services were held this (Tuesday) morning at Forest Lawn Memorial Park, the Seavern Company having charge.

DELIGHTFUL TRIP

BUSINESS AND PLEASURE COMBINED IN AUTO TRIP OF A THOUSAND MILES

After a trip of nearly a thousand miles made in four and a half days, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Smith and son, Laurence, of North Kenwood street, and Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Clarke of Oak street and Mr. Clarke's brother-in-law, Geo. Evans, and Mrs. Evans and children, returned Monday evening to Glendale, having journeyed to Merced, in connection with extensive property interests there. Mr. Smith went to prepare for the improvement of his holdings of almond land, adjacent to Snelling. Mr. Clarke went to look into the field with the possibility of investing in similar property. Several business associates of Mr. Smith are interested in adjoining land, and the entire tract consisting of several hundred acres will probably be merged into one development project and the entire acreage set to trees at one time. The party while on the trip visited the famous Kelsey fig orchard near Merced Falls, also the extensive almond district near Oakdale, where harvesting of the crops was in active progress. Exceedingly prosperous conditions were found and point to a very promising outlook for the Snelling project, where soil and climatic conditions are considered fully as favorable if not even better.

The trip going was made via Bakersfield and the Valley route and returning via Pechico Pass, Salinas and the Coast route. There were three machines in the party and the entire trip was made without trouble or mishap. The weather was extremely hot only during one day, and the remainder of the trip was made under surprisingly comfortable conditions for this season of the year.

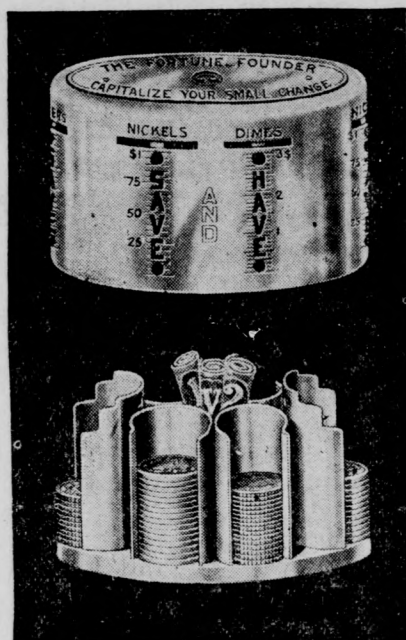

Mr. Smith stated this morning that while he was very enthusiastic regarding the business prospects of his Merced interests, that Glendale looks pretty good from a residential viewpoint and that he contemplates no change in that direction. It is not unlikely that he may build another home before long, to take the place of the attractive and beautiful property on Louise street, near Lexington Drive, which he disposed of a few months ago. In rebuilding, a home of English type is planned, to be constructed of brick. Mr. Smith is advertising manager for Barker Bros., and Mr. Clarke, who has recently moved to Glendale, is engaged in the household appliance business.

YIELDS TO CALIFORNIA'S LURE

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Buchanan of 242 North Orange street said, adieu this morning to Judge H. A. Dancer of Duluth, Minn., who presides over the district court there. This is not the judge's first experience with the climate of Southern California. He has been here in the winter time and liked it immensely, but could hardly credit the tales his friends told him of the delightful summers. He has tested the matter for himself and is so thoroughly convinced by his summer sojourn that he is returning to Duluth with the thought of selling his beautiful $20,000 home there if possible, resigning from the bench, though his term has several years to run, and coming to the Golden State to make his permanent home.

The judge and Mr. Buchanan grew up together, were chums as little boys and college mates at Ann Arbor. They have always kept up the intimacy and Mr. Buchanan is delighted over the possibility that his friend will become a Californian.

SERVICES AT CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH DRAW LARGE ATTENDANCE

Despite the lure of the double holiday the Bible School of Central Christian Church showed a decided increase in attendance and fine audiences greeted the pastor at both morning and evening church services. The morning subject was "How to Grow" and the text was "First the blade, then the ear, then the full corn in the ear." Too many in everyday life and in church life try to grow too rapidly. Growth to be sure should be gradual. There is a tendency in school life today to push the pupil too fast and to build on too narrow a foundation. The pupil is allowed to have two or three studies and wants to be rushed through them, rather than take a full course and fit himself for a life career. The one born into the kingdom, even though well along in years is but a babe in Christ and should learn to walk first, then gradually expand into the full stature of the Christian. He is aided in his growth by the friendship of others, by Christian associations and by communion with God.

The evening subject was "How to Arouse the Man with the Hoe." The speaker stated frankly that his sympathies were with the laboring man rather than the capitalist, but he did not condone in the slightest the wrongs committed by the former. The laboring man is not in sympathy with the church, said to say, and he is very hard to reach because he feels that the church does not want him. It is the church's duty and privilege to show him that the gospel is for him as well as for every other man and is what he needs. The principles of the Christian religion, if put into practice as enunciated by the Master, will solve every problem confronting capital and labor.

PRETTY WEDDING

MARRIAGE OF LUCILE BARNES TO R. OSBORNE MERGHAN AT HOME OF BRIDE'S PARENTS

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McNaughton Barnes, Glendale, Saturday, at 4 o'clock, when their daughter, Lucile Barnes, was united in marriage to R. Osborne Merghan, of Pittsburg, Pa., Rev. O. P. Rider officiating.

The bride, daintily attired in white net, was attended by Miss Winifred Bacon, dressed in pink and white, Lyman Balkema, a cousin of the bride, acting as best man.

The Barnes home was artistically decorated with pink carnations and a bower of ferns, the ceremony being performed under a large wedding bell. The song "Because" was beautifully rendered by Mrs. E. H. Weston, aunt of the bride, accompanied by Mrs. C. L. Chandler at the piano. After the ceremony refreshments were served and Mr. and Mrs. Merghan left immediately on a wedding trip. On their return they will make their home in Glendale. They were the recipients of many beautiful and useful gifts, not the least of which were the electrical appliances of every sort bestowed upon them by the fellow employees of the groom who is in the Los Angeles office of the California Fruit Growers' Exchange. The invited guests were Messrs. and Mesdames C. L. Chandler, E. H. Weston, L. O. Chandler, C. L. Peckham, E. K. Daniels, C. V. Peckham, John L. Peckham, Emery Snow, Walter Snow, E. B. Elias Mesdames E. S. Barnes and S. L. Kinne, Lieut. and Mrs. Paul A. Brattain, Messrs. and Mesdames Robert Theobald and Ralph Carmichael, Misses Frances Peckham, Winifred Bacon, Florence Chandler, Lillian Elias, Gladys Bronson Messrs. A. L. Chandler, Harry McCormick and Lyman Balkema and Mrs. Arthur Barnes of Pasadena.

NEW COMERS FROM LIMA, OHIO

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ingledue, of East Wilson avenue, enjoyed an auto trip to Santa Monica Labor Day and took as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Owen Sherrick and two children, Milo and Mary, who arrived a week ago from Lima, Ohio, the old home town of Mr. and Mrs. Ingledue. It is their first visit to this coast and the trip to Santa Monica gave them their first view of the Pacific. They are very much delighted with Southern California and Glendale in particular. They have secured one of the Tight Apartments and Mr. Sherrick has accepted a position with the Central Market.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hovensack, also of Lima, Ohio, were expected to reach here a week ago, but have evidently been detained by the railroad strike. They are friends of the Sherricks as well as the Ingledues and have lived in Glendale before. Whether they come to stay permanently this time the Ingledues have yet to learn.

AUTO THEFTS

Clinton Booth, who makes a business of insuring automobiles, says that the thefts of autos in or near Glendale during the past week have averaged about one a day and thus far all have been recovered. He explained it last Saturday in part on the theory that there were many people during the P. E. and railroad tie-ups who had urgent need of transportation and who simply commandeered in this informal way, machines which were easy to seize and which tempted them. His explanation does not however account for those which were driven to lonely canyons or thickets elsewhere and stripped of everything removable. Some of the borrowed machines, he argues, were probably taken by men of the underworld who simply had to get away before the police juggled them.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Isitt of 724 South Maryland Ave. are today moving to 509 North Maryland Ave., and are leaving for their new home in Kansas City on the 6th. They will be gone about three weeks.

The Astra Studio on Verdugo Road, which has been taken over by L. J. Gasnier is a busy place. Lou Cody is being featured in Christy comedies, and Dustin Farnum in a western serial which is being directed by Jimmy Horne.

The Evening News is exceedingly sorry to learn that 10 or more fine, large tomatoes were stolen from the vines of Miss Merrett, at the southeast corner of Louise and Harvard, Saturday night, and sincerely hopes the notice given them in a recent issue was not the incentive to the theft.

Fred M. Crose of 225 South Orange street passed away this (Tuesday) morning, after several months of illness. He had been a resident of Glendale a little more than a year and leaves a wife and a brother who is a captain in the navy and stationed in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Rowe and daughter Nellie and a few of their friends motored to Sunland on Labor Day and enjoyed a picnic dinner in Monte Vista Park, the party including besides those mentioned Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thompson, their two daughters, Captain and Mrs. Frederick Weisenheimer and two children and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Master.

SILVER WEDDING

MR. AND MRS. HIGGINS CELEBRATE 25TH ANNIVERSARY OF MARRIAGE

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Higgins of 1101 Wilson avenue was beautifully decorated and otherwise made ready for the celebration last Wednesday evening of the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding. The lavish use of ivy and carnations, under the illumination of electric lights was highly effective and made a very pretty setting for the affair. Not the least pleasant feature was the unexpected appearance, the first of the week of the son of the celebrants who now lives in San Francisco and who came home to honor the anniversary. Their daughter Margaret was also with them. Other guests who responded to their invitation were: Mr. and Mrs. Mason, Rev. R. W. Munson, Paul N. Munson, Mr. and Mrs. Manning, Mr. Brannick, Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman, Mrs. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Ford, Miss Verna McCall, Miss Julia Bunker, Mrs. Alice Foy, Miss Marie Manning, Howard Anderson, Eldon Ford, Alfred Simons, Carl Anderson, Raymond Anderson, Master Mason.

NEW CANDY FACTORY

Mr. and Mrs. Findlay, the confectioners at 125 North Brand boulevard, in association with Mr. Foy, moving picture operator at the Palace Grand, are opening a wholesale and retail candy factory on San Fernando Road, just south of Los Feliz Road, adjoining the Virden Drug Store, where they expect to manufacture for their Brand boulevard retail store and the one at Burbank, as well as the local trade on San Fernando Road.

A. Carlson and family, who have been spending the summer at Long Beach, have returned to Glendale and are temporarily located at 327 West Broadway.

CHRISTIANITY FRAUD?

to make a sounding title to his subject. The speaker mentioned two modern religious fakes, as he explained them and argued from that standpoint that the Christian religion was a fraud. He referred to a tradition, and he was absolutely fair in repeating that it was a tradition, only, of the birth of Buddha, about 500 years B. C. in much the same manner that Jesus was born, who lived a very similar life and promulgated similar teachings. He did not mention that John Clark Ridpath, the greatest of modern historians, whose history of the world is one of the profoundest and completest works of the kind now extant, never heard of this tradition but does set forth fully and completely and backs up his statements with proofs as clear as attest the authenticity of Washington, Napoleon, Charlemagne and Caesar, that Jesus was born and lived and died as detailed in Holy Writ. The speaker also said that Solomon's temple was a myth, a creation of fancy, evolved from descriptions of ancient Grecian and Egyptian temples, when the facts are that Solomon's temple and the court surrounding it were absolutely unique in design, the latter being of irregular outline and the temple of a design and construction entirely different from any of the ancient Egyptian and Grecian ruins. Not a statement made derogatory to the Christ and Christianity can be found in a general history. The speaker said his ancestors were Huguenots and Scotch Presbyterians and he was educated for the ministry, preaching for several years. Then he began to study modern research and rationalism and became convinced he had been preaching a myth. He bolstered up most of his statements with quotations from modern higher critics and quoted accurately from the New Testament once or twice, yet made two glaring errors in speaking of Bible descriptions and events, once when he placed seraphim in addition to cherubim in the Holy of Holies of tabernacle and temple and again when he located Christ's picture of the judgment in the 24th chapter of Matthew. There was nothing new in the speaker's argument, intelligent, intellectual man that he undeniably is. It was the usual statements of higher critics, most of which was propagated in German universities and disseminated in our colleges by German professors. To the man who believes in Christ and his church Mr. Cantrell's lectures do not inspire a feeling of anger, but rather infinite sadness and pity that one of his talents should go about trying to knock the props from under those who cling to the words of the Christ as life and hope, and yet offers nothing, absolutely nothing, in return. Even if he believes, deep down in his heart, that his sayings are true, he should keep them to himself or else offer to his hearers something higher, holier and more comforting. The very fact that the Christian religion has stood for 19 centuries numberless such assaults as this and others far worse in its own ranks, is proof of its genuineness, and it cannot be denied that it is the only religion that exalts womanhood and teaches real love and compassion. There are no orphan asylums, hospitals, old people's homes, great public buildings to care for the unfortunate and no free public schools in the lands of Buddha, Confucius and Mohammed, except as Christian missionaries have established them, and there were none in ancient Greece, Egypt, Persia or Babylon.

The Evening News reporter is not sorry he took the time to hear Mr. Cantrell's lecture, for it convinced him more than ever of the truth of Christ's sayings, notably this one: "Except ye have faith as this little child ye are not worthy to enter my kingdom." The little child's faith is absolute. He does not reason about it. So must the Christian's ever be, and "even the gates of hell shall not prevail against it."

manikins were garbed in the fashion of half a century ago. Mrs. Smart was then challenged to show some of her wedding finery which she did, exhibiting white kid gloves and slippers somewhat yellowed by age and smaller by several sizes than she wears now.

A very beautiful scheme of floral decoration had been carried out with loving thought by Mrs. Schweizer, a scheme which ran the gamut of the shades of yellow and which was carried out with marigolds, golden glow and lemon-shaded dahlias and roses blended with greenery. The dining room with its orange-colored streamers, ferns and flowers was an especial triumph. Here was to be seen the beautiful pyramid wedding cake 16 inches in diameter made at the Broadway Bakery and beautifully decorated with scrolls and lettering. It bore the dates, 1869 and 1919, the maiden name of Mrs. Smart and the name of her husband.

The cutting proved it to be a sunshine cake—golden yellow and delicious. Of course there were other refreshments—more cake, ice cream and fruit punch.

Then there was an informal and quite spontaneous musical program. The niece of the celebrants—Miss Elsie Jordan, of Los Angeles, contributed two vocal solos, little Faith Walters, the youngest grandchild, sang, Miss Elizabeth Mottern played piano selections, and in response to request the venerable bride and groom who were renewing their troth sang two numbers.

While the light was still good they were posed for pictures with their own pleasant yard as a background. The photos will probably be in strong demand for they will be prized by many friends in distant places who sent congratulations and gifts but who were unable to be present. Besides receiving $50.00 in gold, Mr. and Mrs. Smart were the recipients of many beautiful presents.

CANNING STRING BEANS

This is the season for the canning of string beans and it behooves every housewife to put up all she can, as the commercial supply will be scarce and high this year and it is never as appetizing as the home-canned variety. Many housewives have already canned largely from their vines and have more to put up. The government plan of putting the beans in jar or can, boiling them three hours in a large vessel with a false bottom, is used by many, but a subscriber on Fairmont street has sent us a recipe for a much shorter method she has used with considerable success. Here is her plan: "Prepare as for table use. To each quart of beans add one scant rounded teaspoonful of cream of tartar. Put on to boil in cold water. After the boiling point is reached, boil 20 minutes and seal in the jars hot. When preparing for the table parboil three minutes in water to which a small amount of baking soda has been added. Then drain and add fresh water, cooking in this one hour."

The lady says the above recipe has been used for 25 years and will never fail if directions are carefully followed.

Ludendorff's forthcoming book in which he will reveal the inside secrets of Germany's participation in the Great War. This momentous work publication of which is to start simultaneously in leading newspapers throughout the Allied and neutral nations, is expected to lift the black veil that hitherto has hidden Germany's war secrets from the outside world.

In the Southwest, General Ludendorff's expose will appear serially in the Los Angeles Examiner exclusively, beginning September 7th and every day until completed. Among other newspapers in America that will publish Ludendorff's books are the New York World, the Toronto Star, the Chicago News, the Boston Post, the Philadelphia Public Ledger and other prominent journals. In England it will appear in Lord Northcliffe's newspapers, and in Paris in Le Temps. Other newspapers equally prominent will publish the book in various Allied and neutral nations.

General Ludendorff, more than any other man in Germany, not excepting the ex-Kaiser himself, is peculiarly equipped to tell the inside Teuton war history, for he dominated the entire Teuton military machine, especially toward the close of the war. When the crash came, last November, Ludendorff broke with the Kaiser and Von Hindenburg, seized a great mass of official records and documents in Berlin and fled to Sweden. There he commenced the personal preparation of the forthcoming book.

Sir George Hutchinson and Lord Northcliffe, the great London publishers, went to Stockholm several months ago, read the manuscript and reported that it is the Great Story of the German Side of the War. Thereupon the largest cash advance ever made in the history of the publishing business was paid for the manuscript, the American rights for which were secured by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

Ludendorff's historical confession is the complete story of Germany's foredoomed attempt to dominate the world and tells the world for the first time the real story of what was going on behind the scenes of Hun autocracy during the Great War.

Advertise it, or advertise for it in the Evening News.

LUDENDORFF'S CONFESSION GERMANY WAS "YELLOW"

*Secret History at Last!
Germany's Black Curtain Lifted!*

THIS IS THE MAN!

Throughout the war the world was kept in dense ignorance of the situation in the German empire. Even now a veil of dark mystery hangs over the whole conduct of the war from the Berlin side.

This Veil Will Be Torn Aside in the Columns of The Examiner

For the first time since that dread August day when Germany began her assault on a peaceful world, The Examiner and the leading newspapers of New York, London and Paris will present the whole, secret, inside story of how Germany, believing herself headed for victory, was doomed to failure; how behind the seeming triumphs there was hesitation, doubt and blundering downfall.

It Is History—Lord Northcliffe Says Everybody in the British Empire Should Read This Confession EVERY AMERICAN SHOULD READ IT, TOO!

Years from now the historical text books will be printing the amazing disclosures and exposures you will soon be able to read in the columns of The Examiner—AND NOWHERE ELSE IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA.

Ludendorff was the great menacing figure of Teutonic arms. It was he who directed the campaigns, it was his voice which in the latter days rose even higher than the Kaiser's. During the war he was execrated as the chief exponent of Hun brutality. When the crash came he had to flee Germany. He now lays claim to the mantle of statesmanship!

His story will be complete, the history of every battle, the hidden German stories of every campaign. It deals, not with disjointed events, but lays bare the whole German side of the war—THE FIRST LIGHT SHED ON THE DEBACLE OF AN EMPIRE.

It Is, Without Exception, the Most Momentous Feature Printed in Any Newspaper Since the War Began

Shortly after the signing of the Armistice, Ludendorff, breaking with Hindenburg and the Kaiser, hurried to Sweden, taking with him a tremendous mass of records and a large staff of assistants. From these records and his own knowledge and experience, he, PERSONALLY, has produced this amazing document—one for which the whole world is waiting.

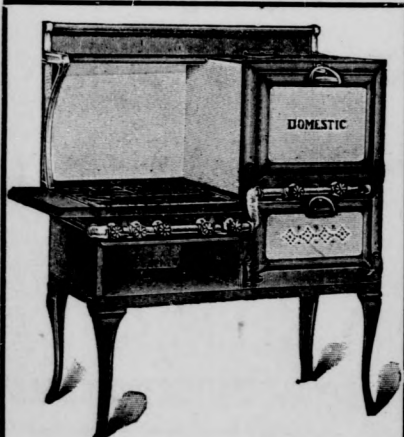

THE LARGEST CASH ADVANCE EVER MADE IN THE HISTORY OF THE PUBLISHING BUSINESS WAS PAID FOR THIS MANUSCRIPT. Some of the greatest expert judges of book and newspaper material were sent by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate—Sir George Hutchinson and Lord Northcliffe, the great English publishers—to Stockholm to read the manuscript. They unanimously reported that it was THE GREAT STORY OF THE GERMAN SIDE OF THE WAR.

IN PARIS THE STORY WILL APPEAR IN THE GREAT DAILY "LE TEMPS," IN LONDON IT WILL APPEAR IN THE NORTHCLIFFE PUBLICATIONS. IN AMERICA IT WILL APPEAR IN LEADING NEWSPAPERS IN THE LARGEST CITIES, INCLUDING NEW YORK WORLD, BOSTON POST, CHICAGO NEWS, TORONTO STAR, PHILADELPHIA PUBLIC LEDGER.

THIS HISTORY WILL APPEAR DAILY IN THE L. A. EXAMINER
